The Watertown Democrat endorse Jenkins in this strain, which commands public attention: "There is no longer a doubt that the Democrats have nominated just the right man for Governor. The only change against Mr. Jenkins is that he is a war Democrat." It is a satisfaction to the Democrats that he did not favor the war to suppress the rebellion, and therefore he is just the right man for Governor.

The La Crosse Democrat relieves itself in this manner:

Bob Ingersoll teaches men and women how to live and be more liberal to their fellow men.
While the Janesville Gazette advertises for altruistic doctors, quacks, and all other humbugs, including the Republican party, which is about the biggest quack and abortion we know of, except it is its twin in iniquity, the Democratic party.

"Brick" Pomeroy has been noted for years for his loud pretensions. Of course he would not advertise quack doctors, nor support humbugs, nor bleed the deluded men on the Greenback State ticket, nor cheat his creditors, nor do anything very mean. But it seems that he is apt to make mistakes, and to forget his past record, both politically and morally. In certain pre-cedings in New York, he was he deny that on the books in court appear these words: "M. M. Pomeroy, liabilities $140,000; assets, nothing." A truthful sketch of "Brick's" life—domestic and political, with a statement regarding some of his financial operations, would be interesting to that class of persons who delight in sensations.

SUPERINTENDENT WHITFORD.

Last week Superintendent Whitford went to Waupaca in response to an invitation to lecture, and this is what the Press of that village says in regard to that gentleman: "Superintendent William C.
Whitford, and candidate on the Republican ticket for that office visited our city Tuesday, lecturing in the Baptist church in the evening to a full house. People here have heard a great deal about this man, the State Superintendent, and were happily disappointed in him we are glad to say.
He left a good impression on the teachers and our citizens generally, his lecture showing culture and intellect behind it." Wherever Mr. Whitford lectures or engages in educational work, he wins friends and increases his personal strength. He is not only a cultured gentleman, but he is a faithful, industrious, and able public officer, and will be re-elected to the office he honorably filled.

THE OHIO ELECTION.

To-day closes one of the most remarkable political contests ever seen in any State in this country—that in Ohio. For more than three long months the battle has been hotly carried on. More meetings have been held, more prominent public speakers engaged, more bands of music employed, more bonfires made, and more powder burned, than in any previous State campaign in the United States. What all this will amount to will be seen to-morrow.
It is not difficult, however, to predict the result so far as the gubernatorial question is concerned. It is admitted on all hands that Foster will be elected over Ewing but as to the size of the majority there are great differences of opinion. The more sanguine estimate the Republican majority at from 30,000 to 35,000, while the more conservative and the less enthusiastic place the majority at 5,000 to 10,000. Politically, Ohio is a singular State. There are more factions, more local issues, more differences of opinion on the money question than in any other State in the Union.
When a full vote is polled, the State is Republican; when the Republicans become careless and lose their enthusiasm, the State is carried by the Democrats by a small majority. In 1876 President Hayes carried it by 7,516 over Tilden, and last year Barnes, the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, defeated Page, the Democratic candidate, by 3,154 majority, but in 1877, Bishop, Democrat, was elected Governor over West, by 22,520.

One of the peculiar features of the Ohio campaign is that the Democrats rather abandoned the gubernatorial part of the contest, and put their hard work on the Legislature, counting that of more importance than the election of Ewing. Ewing was apprized of this some time ago and plainly saw his defeat. The Republicans hope to carry both the State ticket and the Legislature, but a double-headed victory of this kind, while it is possible, is hardly probable. The present Legislature, on a joint ballot, stands, Democrats, 93, Republicans, 51, giving the Democrats a 42 majority. To overcome this large Legislative

NUMBER 187

majority, would require extremely vigorous work under the most favorable circumstances. The Republicans have made a strong canvass, and it is possible that they may carry the Legislature, or at least materially reduce the Democratic majority.
The tremendous activity of the campaign, and the importance of the Ohio vote in the great struggle next year, will arouse an uncommon interest in the result of to-day.

THOSE NATURALIZATION PAPERS

Stung to the quick by the certainty of a galling defeat in this State, the Democrats are resorting to all sorts of tricks in the attempt to injure the personal character of Governor Smith. Their latest is the statement over large display head lines that he held office many years in this State when he was a subject of Great Britain. Of course they know this statement is false.
The demagogic editor of the Madison Democrat, a man who strangely professes to be a gentleman, started the lie for the express purpose of injuring the character of Governor Smith. When "General" Parkinson, the editor of the Democrat, and Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, wrote the article charging the Governor with dishonesty in holding office, he knew that he was doing that which no true gentleman and no honest man would do. He knew that the charge was a dishonest trick, a lie upon his face, and would wound a Christian gentleman, a pure man, a noble citizen, and a faithful public officer. It was done for the lowest of all bad motives, because the editor of the Democrat knew that it was an absolute fact that Governor Smith never held office when he was not a citizen, and that he did not take out naturalization papers for the purpose of creating citizenship. This "General" Parkinson, this professed gentleman, who is attempting to win some cheap notoriety by wickedly injuring the reputation of an honorable man, is well acquainted with the fact that Governor Smith came to this country when he was a child ten years old, and therefore became a lawful citizen through the naturalization of his father. In 1870, desiring to make a visit to Europe, he asked for a passport from the State Department at Washington, which could not be given him without positive proof of his citizenship. He did not have time to go to Michigan to find his father's naturalization papers and was advised to take out the requisite paper at Madison in the Supreme Court, which was done as a matter of fact.

This is all there is of the matter. It shows that the Democrats are in desperate state of feeling over the prospect that the Republicans will sweep the State, and that they are willing to resort to the vilest tricks to injure the Republican ticket.
"General" Parkinson, may think there is political capital in that kind of warfare, but he will learn by the result in November that his dishonest and false charges will not win in Wisconsin.

JAMES G. JENKINS IN THE ROLE OF A PATRIOT.

The Democrats of Wisconsin have found out that their candidate for Governor has a war record which needs fixing up. When they gave him the nomination they probably little thought that during the darkest days of the war, when this Nation was having a mighty struggle for an existence he gloried in all the defeats of the Union army, and rejoiced in the assassination of the greatest man of modern times—ABRAHAM LINCOLN. But he did all this, and with these facts confronting the Democratic State Committee, they determined to turn Jenkins into a patriot and published a speech which they said he delivered in Milwaukee on the last day of July, 1862. But the Milwaukee Sentinel has searched for the proceedings of that meeting, and there is no evidence from the proceedings which were published at the time that he ever delivered the speech attributed to him. It cannot be found—not in any paper then published in Milwaukee. These facts prove that the "loyal" speech of Mr. Jenkins, was gotten up for the purposes of the campaign, and to deceive the people.

In order to show the exact amount of loyalty Mr. Jenkins had during the mortal combat between Freedom and Slavery, let us give our readers some more facts brought to light by the Milwaukee Sentinel. Our readers have not forgotten the "Ryan Address" adopted by the Democratic State Convention held in Milwaukee, in September, 1862. This Address was intensely disloyal, and was written by the present editor of our paper, Hon. S. U. Pinney, of Madison. He did not approve of all the Address and therefore took an extract from a speech delivered by that patriot and eminent statesman—Stephen A. Douglas—a few weeks before his untimely death, and offered it as an amendment to the Address. The extract read:

Now, my friends, we have a solemn duty to perform. It is to use all the power God has given us to maintain the constitution and government that our fathers established for us. The more energy and unanimity we display in the performance of this great duty, the less will be the destruction of life and property and the sooner will come the day of peace. I am aware that we have had some difficulty and prejudice to encounter in producing unanimity. It is not surprising that such should have been the case. We must remember that it has been but a few short months since we came out of a fierce, civil war, in which engendered much bitterness of feeling. It takes some little time to banish these passions from the human heart, and substitute unloyal patriotism to their place. Whoever is not prepared to sacrifice party organizations and platforms on the altar of his country, does not deserve the confidence and support of honest people. How are we to overcome partisan antipathies in the minds of men of all parties, so as to present a united front in support of our country? We must close discussing party issues.

Make no allusion to old party tests. Have no criminations and recominations. Indulge in no taunts, one against the other, as to who has been the cause of these troubles. When we shall have rescued the Government and the country from its peril and seen its flag floating in triumph over every inch of American soil. It will then be time enough to inquire as to who and what has brought these troubles upon us. When we shall have a government and a country for our children to live in, in peace and happiness, it will be time for each of us to return to our party banners, according to our own convictions of right and duty. Let him be marked as no true patriot, who will not abandon all such issues in times like this.

These were the words of a true patriot —one whose dying words to his two sons were, "support the Constitution," and who gave Abraham Lincoln all the support he could command. When they were read, and when they should have inspired the Convention with loyal sentiments, and created outbursts of applause, James G.
Jenkins, the present candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket, most to lay Douglas's immortal words on the table, AND THE MOTION PREVAILED!

These are facts. They are not campaign lies. They are not produced for buncombe.
They are given that the people of Wisconsin may know what manner of a man was James G. Jenkins in 1862, and what he continued to be during the civil conflict for the Constitution and Liberty.

OHIO ELECTION.

Special to the Gazette.
CINCINNATI, Oct. 14.—The weather is fine throughout the State, and voting is lively on both sides. An immense vote is looked for, the estimate placing it at seven hundred thousand.

The Republicans are making roads into the working men in the iron region.
Break business and good wages are causing many Democratic workmen to vote the Republican ticket.

The vote in this city is estimated at fifty thousand. The Republican majority may be less than 10,000.

The Democrats claim that the Nationalists are voting for Ewing.
CLEVELAND, Oct. 14.—The election is progressing quietly. The vote will be large. Ewing is being largely scratched.
Many of the Nationalists are voting for him.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 14.—There is little scratching going on here, and very little electrocloning. The Seetz law proves beneficial, and only one arrest has been made for illegal voting.

THE MASSACRE

Of the Employees of the White River Agency.

RAWLINS, W. T., Oct. 13.—Mr. Emil Webber and George Fuhr, two couriers have just arrived from what was a few days ago the White River Agency. From them I learn the following particulars: General Merritt arrived upon the agency on the 11th inst. On the way he found many dead bodies, among others those of Carl Goldstein, an Austrian, who left here with government supplies with the Utes at White River Agency. He was found in a gulch six miles from the agency. He was shot twice through the shoulder and was about two miles from his wagon.
A teamster named Julius Moore, formerly from Bainbridge, Massachusetts, who was with him when he left here, was found about 100 yards from Goldstein with two bullet holes in his breast, and his body heaved and mutilated with a knife or hatchet.

As the command advanced 1 through the canyon they came to an old coal mine, and and it was found the dead body of agency employee named Draper.
He had evidently been wounded 1, and crawled in the mine to die. His coat was folded up and placed under his head for a pillow. Beside him lay a Winchester rifle containing eight cartridges. In one of his pockets a letter was found, which, as near as the courier can remember, was as follows:

WHITE RIVER, Sept. 29—1 p. m.—"Major Thornburgh: I will come with Chief Douglas and another chief and meet you to-morrow. Everything quiet here, and Douglas is flying the United States flag; not that we expect any trouble, but because there might be. Did you have any trouble coming through the canyon?"

"N. C. MEKKER, U. S. Indian Agent." On entering the agency a scene of quiet desolation presented itself. All except one house were burned to the ground, and not a living thing in sight except the command. The Indians had taken everything, except the flour, and decamped. The women and children were missing, and nothing whatever could be found to indicate what had become of them. They have either been murdered and buried, or else taken away in wagons.
Their drovid and unmen'ionable fate calls for the most profound sympathy.

The dead body of Father Meeker was found about one hundred yards from his house, lying on his back, shot through the head. The left side of his head had been cut and was lying on the ground, and a piece of a barrel stave driven into his mouth, and one of his hands and arms badly burned.
The dead body of Mr. W. H. Post, Father Meeker's assistant, was found between the building and the river, a bullet hole through the ear and one under the ear. His eyes as Father Meeker were stripped entirely naked.
Another employee named Eaton was found dead. He was stripped naked, and had a number of paper bags in his arms.
His face was badly eaten by wolves.

OHIO'S BATTLE.

The Outlook at Cincinnati—What the Republicans Claim.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.—The great political struggle of to-morrow is the topic of general conversation here to-night. The entire city is alive with enthusiasm. For the past week the Democrats have entered the fire of their heaviest artillery upon Hamilton County. Ewing, Rice, Pendleton, and a number of other "Western" gentlemen are vigorously at work in the city and county, and every effort is evidently being made to carry the county, and thus secure the legislature. In the State generally the week has developed little change. To-night finds both parties hotly engaged, but certainly it was a little more certain than it really is. The Republicans claim a majority of from 15,000 to 40,000. The Democrats say they will win by from 8, 000 to 15,000. A careful study of the subject seems to indicate that the chances are in favor of Ewing's election, but that the margin will be very close. Yet it is generally conceded that to insure the legislature to themselves they must carry a portion of Hamilton County, though without it they may possibly gain a small majority on joint ballot. In Hamilton County the Republicans are confident of success.

OPEN BRIDGE.

A Switch Engine Goes Thorough an Open Bridge in Milwaukee—The Result.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 13.—About 8 o'clock this evening, while a switch engine in the yard of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad was making up the midnight freight, it started to cross Burnham Slip bridge to the west yards.
The fog was so thick that it was impossible to see but a few feet ahead, and the engineer did not discover, until within a few feet of it, that the bridge was turned for a passing vessel. The engine, tender and a car of large lumber plunged into the river. The engine and fireman jumped from the engine, the former, Len Butler, was picked up out of the river, probably fatally injured. The fireman escaped with severe bruises about the head, while Harry Hill, a telegraph operator, who was riding on the bumper of the locomotive, was buried under the debris and crushed into an unrecognizable mass. Mike Tooney, a switchman, was also on the engine, but jumped and escaped unhurt. The loss to the railroad is about $25,000.

OUT OF DANGER.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13th.—S. M. Hickey, manager for Mrs. Anderson, shot by Miss McDonald, is to day reported in a fair way to recover. The ball still remains in the side of his skull, but it now appears did not penetrate the brain, merely passing through the skull and following it round on the inside instead of passing through the brain.

Miss Anderson and her company left here for Chicago this morning, leaving Mrs. Hickey, the "old woman" of the company, behind to nurse Hickey. The proprietors of the Burnet house are rendering him every attention in their power, and it does not recover it will not be for want of care.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13, 11:20 p. m.—Late reports from the physicians show that the inner plate of Hickey's skull is not fractured, and that, therefore, he may be counted out of danger. His physicians say that he will be able to rejoin his company within two weeks. A post mortem was held upon the dead woman to-day, and she will to-morrow be given a decent and Christian burial in the Wesleyan Cemetery in the outskirts of the city. Her father has been telegraphed to, but has not thus far been heard from.

DEMOCRATIC SPEECHES.

MADISON, Oct. 13.—The Assembly Chamber was well filled to night, many ladies being present, to listen to the speeches of A. A. Butler and the Democratic nominee for Governor, James G. Jenkins. A large number of Republicans were present and show 1 their appreciation of the compliment 1 remarks made by Mr. Butler concerning Governor Smith, by heartily and long continued applause. Mr. Jenkins' speech was well received, but neither he nor Mr. Butler brought up any new ideas or demonstrated to any one the reason why they should support the Democratic party.

One year ago at 7 o'clock a. m., the thermometer stood at 57 degrees, and at 3 o'clock p. m., at 76 degrees above. The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, clear or partly cloudy weather, warmer southerly winds, stationary barometer, possibly followed in the north and west portions by colder westerly winds and rising barometer.

No one who has yet resided at St. James' Or, for Rheumatism, and been disappointed.

DEATH OF ARTHUR HILL.

As will be seen by our telegraphic news Arthur Hill, was killed in Milwaukee last evening in a railroad accident. Young Hill was a telegraph operator in the West yard, and about tea time jumped on the footboard of the switch engine to ride across the river to a point nearer his boarding place. The draw bridge was open and the engine went plunging into the river. His body was recovered about midnight, and is to be brought to Evansville to-night, where his parents live and where he has made it his home. The funeral services are to be held there at 3 o'clock to-morrow-afternoon.

THE JAMES ROBBERY.

At the examination of Smith and Fagan for robbing and robbing Dr. James was commenced this morning. Dr. James was not in condition to go on with his testimony and the case was adjourned until this afternoon when it was continued. Hagerty, the other one arrested for taking part in the affair, was put on the stand. He testified that he went further than the brewery but that Ragan and James went on, and Ragan came back alone. On the way up town Ragan told him "I give it to the fellow in the kisser. I give it to him bad, and I got his roll. I got forty bills." This looks bad for Ragan. The case is still in progress.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY.

Last evening Lappin's music hall was filled below and above with a fine audience as ever gathered at a night entertainment of the kind given last time by the pupils of Miss Lizzie E. Battle and Mrs. S. R. Noon. The stage presented a very attractive appearance indeed, seeming like some richly furnished parlor, with little knick-knacks which seem to relieve it of all stiffness and give it an every home-like look. The programme was an excellent one, and its execution reflected great credit upon the instruction and ability of Mrs. Noon and Miss Battle, the musical portion of the programme being given by the pupils of the latter, and the elocutionary portion by Mrs. Noon's pupils. Mrs. Noon did not appear herself, but her work spoke for her in loud praise of her capabilities as an instructor in elocution. Mrs. J. S. Day, who has already gained a considerable local reputation, gave several selections, among them being "For a That, and a That," and "Sermon to the Sisters." She was given a hearty encore, and responded by another selection, showing also her wonderful power of imitating the negro dialect. She has rare gifts of mimicry, and this coupled with her cultured elocutionary powers, enables her to capture an audience and hold it and move it at will. Miss Ella Huron, another of Mrs. Noon's pupils, gave a recitation, "One Niche the Highest," which was well rendered, and cordially received. Another of the pupils, little Miss Minnie Lynch, gave Collins "Graves' Ride." She showed a natural timidity and modesty, becoming one of her years, but rendered the selection in a manner which called out a hearty encore to which she responded with "Belshazzar's Feast." For one of her age she shows a remarkable voice and controls it with wonderful skill.

Miss Battle surprised many of her friends by also showing a marked talent in elocution. She gave a recitation in which she depicted in a most life-like manner little Miss Edith entertaining her big sister's beau, Mr. D. D. Bennett taking the part of the beau in a happy manner. She also gave a recitation in which she showed in a laughable manner the feelings of a little girl on cracking her doll's head. Both recitations were loudly applauded.

Miss Battle and her pupils presented the musical part of the programme excellently. Miss Battle played duets with Miss Bertha Swan, Miss Viola Anderson, and Miss Ella Hotelling, all of which were well rendered. Miss Sara Johnson gave a pleasing piano solo "La Gazelle." Miss Anderson also played a brilliant solo, one of Chopin's waltzes, and Mrs. H. A. Doty gave a fitting close to the programme by Raff's "Cachouca Caprice," which was grandly rendered.

Miss Samuella Few added much to the interest of the occasion by giving two violin solos, both of which were so warmly enjoyed that she had to respond with others. For a young lady of her age, being only seventeen, she handles the bow with wonderful skill. Graceful in her manners, skilful in her fingerings she weaves the strains sweetly, and merits the praise which has been so freely given her elsewhere.

The entertainment was a happy success in all respects, and was most heartily enjoyed by all who attended.

PUBLIC POTPOURRI.

The Aldermen Again Gather Around the Council Table to Attend to the City Concerns.

At a regular meeting of the Common Council held last evening the Mayor presided and all the Aldermen were present except Ald. Barnes, Croft and Robinson. After the reading and approval of the minutes the usual budget of bills, memorials, etc., were presented and referred to appropriate committees. Among those was the bond of Ellen Collins and a request to have the license of J. S. Wulf transferred to her; a protest from taxpayers of the Fourth ward against the opening of High street; a petition from citizens to close Frank Richard's saloon; and sundry official reports.

Ald. Davies, by request of Ald. Church, reported on the claim of Charles Skelly against the city, stating that there was no ground for any such claim.

Ald. Church moved that the matter be referred to the City Attorney for his opinion. Ald. Fitzgibbon moved that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee but this was ruled out of order, as it was already in their hands. Ald. Church's motion was then carried unanimously.

Ald. Fitzgibbon, report J without recommendation the proposition for an index book of the council proceedings. Mr. J. A. Vankirk, present J the September report of the Treasurer is correct, Filed.

The License and the Judiciary committee, reported favorably upon the request of Ellen Collins and her bonds. Wulf's license, was accordingly transferred to her.

Ald. Fitzgibbon, called attention to the river banks, and suggested that some committee be authorized to see the parties and endeavor to have the nuisances abated.

The Judiciary Committee, through Ald. Davies, reported as correct, the September report of the Police Justice. Filed.

Ald. Vankirk, of the Finance Committee, reported in favor of the payment of sundry bills and accounts. There was the usual flurry about Fish ward matters which almost always follows the Finance Committee's report, but it was short and of little moment. All the bills reported were allowed except that of Thomas Burns. Ald. Fitzgibbon moved to lay this over until the next meeting for the consideration of the tax payers of the Fifth ward. This was lost, whereupon Ald. Fitzgibbon moved that the bill be allowed. This was also lost, Ald. Davies and Fitzgibbon voting against it, and not leaving the need two-thirds in favor of it.

The names of N. B. Robinson and James Moore were confirmed as members of Water Witch Engine Company vice G. J. Little and Ne's Car'son resigned.

On motion of Ald. Vankirk, the Park Committee were instructed to take away portions of the fence around the Court House park so as to permit the entrance and exit of pedestrians.

On motion of the same Alderman the Gas Company was requested to present its bill monthly, commencing November 1.

Ald. Fitzgibbon presented the following order which was voted down:

JANESVILLE, Wis., Oct. 13, '97.
That wherever I have examined the financial condition of the Fifth ward funds, and find accounts already presented that will over draw the fund, and where my notice has been called to the fact that Alderman J. H. Burr's father is working in said Fifth ward, and by request of many tax payers in said Fifth ward, I will present the following order:

Ordered by the Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville that Ald. J. H. Burr be and is hereby ordered to cease all work, where he will incur indebtedness to be incurred in said Fifth ward.

Ald. Burns presented an order instructing the City Clerk to furnish blanks for making out bills.

Referred to the Printing Committee.
Ald. Church moved to reconsider that part of the order for erecting a lamp post on the Myers house corner, that gave the choosing of the site to the chairman of the Gas Committee.

It being noticed that there was no quorum present the Council was adjourned on that account and no further action was taken.

THE LARKS IN HOT WATER.

The bill-boards are now being decorated in fine shape with the showy paper, announcing that on Friday and Saturday evening the "Larks" will be at Lappin's music hall. The entertainment which they are to give is unique, and can only be compared with the "Patch-work" of the Troubadours, and the "Belles of the Kitchen" of the Vokes. It is of that style of entertainment, but is thoroughly original. It is a melange of musical and dramatic nonsensicalities, and is as full of fun as an egg is of meat. It can't help but draw a crowd, as all who want to shake off the blues will surely have to go, and all those who haven't any blues and feel like laughing cannot stay away. William Foster, the manager of the Academy of Music, at Des Moines says: "I think more of the 'Larks' than any play that ever visited our city," and that is but an echo of scores of like expressions from all over the west. The play is termed "Hot Water" and the cast presents a fine array of talent. The diagram can be found at Kings' bookstore where tickets are for sale, and reserved seats can be had.

MR. AND MRS. A. O. MILLER.

I have distinguished artist, and will appear at Myer's Opera House on Thursday evening next, Oct. 16th and remain three nights.

The Oaklough North-Western in speaking of them say: The Poor Horse at Fraker Hall has been run the entire week to crowded houses, which is proof enough of his drawing qualities. Mr. Miller in his negro character of Mezzie, has made an immense hit here, and the Poor Horse has been well spoken of by all these gores. That it should draw six crowded houses in succession in a city like this is a recommendation enough for it. Mr. Miller is a gentleman of fine qualities as a business man and an actor, and his connections with everybody here here in a business and professional point of view have been of the most pleasant character. The company closes the season here this evening here and open at Fond du Lac next week. Our people would be only too pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Miller back here again at no distant day. A big house awaits them for this evening.

STOCK OPERATIONS THAT PAY.

The past few weeks have been prolific of immense percentages of profits at the New York Exchange, by the careful use of moderate sums in well manipulated stock transactions, which returned a legitimate gain on capital invested according to correct business principles. Great activity prevails in the market. The safest and surest way to increase your wealth is by the Protective System of dealing in stocks, which affords absolute guarantees that cannot possibly be assured otherwise. The new system, which has produced results surprising to all. The conservative basis of this system is its great safety, and the sure of gaining the large profits that accrue so quickly in stock movements, there must be reasonable protection against sweeping risks. This is why the Protective System is so successful. Monday three gentlemen in New York each invested $1,000 in Lake Shore stock by the Financial Union System, and invested $100 in Western Union and Lake Shore stocks, and made a clean profit of $375.00. On Saturday a prominent New York politician invested $100 in Lake Shore, and made a clean profit of $100. A large brewer in St. Louis put $2,500 in Protective on St. Paul and Northwestern stocks, and fifteen days afterward closed with a gain of $1,000. These are examples of what has been accomplished in Financial Union by the Protective System of operating in stocks when good advice has been followed. With the present activity the prospects for gain in the near future are most favorable, as the Protective System is now being called into operation from fluctuations up or down as they occur. Amounts from $25 to $250.00 or more can be invested with protective success by the Financial Union System on regular sales, it leaves the control of funds in the hands of investor, with a definite knowledge of all the time and place their money is on, so that they can see at a glance what their profits are at any hour of the day by referring to market quotations.
